VOL. III. RALEIGH, N. C., THURSDAY, JULY 23, 1868. NO. 297

The Daily Sentinel.

WM. E. PELL, Proprietor.

From the Washington Evening Express.

CITIZENS, BEWARE.

Of all the iniquitous measures proposed in a most unscrupulous Congress, perhaps the most insidious and venomous of all is the bill introduced in the House by Mr. Payne, of Wisconsin, and passed with most indecent haste on the 3d of July, under the whip of the previous question, when a bare quorum of Radicals was present, and scarce any Democratic members.

This bill provides for the furnishing of muskets, cannon, equipments, etc., to the "loil" militia of each State, to the limit of two thousand rifled muskets, two field pieces, equipments, &c., &c., for each Congressional district and Territory. The dangerous character of this bill is apparent. Of course it is eminently proper that the arms of this Government should be put into the hands of men who are faithful thereto. It would be silly to arm its enemies. But let us consider the provisions of the bill from a constitutional standpoint.

First, The President is the commander-in chief of the army and navy of the United States.

Second, The State governments have the sole control of the organization and equipment of State militia.

These facts are evidenced by the fact that the President, in time of peril, calls upon the State governments for their respective quotas; but there is no precedent to show that the Executive ever prescribed the method in which these quotas should be drawn, or in what manner they should be organized.

Now, what does this bill propose? On its face it leaves with the Governors of States and Territories the right of organization, but in the same breath it says that they must show to the satisfaction of the General of our armies that said organizations are "truely loil."

What is the effect of all this? It takes the command of the army from the President, in whom it is vested by the Constitution, and it takes away from the States the right to select their quotas—a power, since the foundation of the Government, vested in them by the Constitution, and universally conceded.

But it may be asked if, under the light of modern progress, this bill is not a salutary instrument? God save the mark!—Americans, we say to you, from the depths of our heart, that this bill caps the climax to all the vile measures passed by the Radical Congress. Do you ask us why? If passed by the Senate it establishes, on an enduring foundation, an oligarchy more despotic than ever struck terror to the people of Venice in the times of the Doges. It shackles the limbs of all lovers of good order. It brings to the surface the scum of society, armed and insolent under the control of the myrmidons of the Radical oligarchs. It gives to the "General of our Armies" the right to disarm any body of militia which he may in his majesty elect. No question of previous service in the armies of the Union arises; it matters not what may be their past record; all that is to be considered is whether the General of our Armies deems a militia fit to bear arms or not. What an absolute, what a despotic, what an unauthorized power is here conferred!

The General of our Armies has under this act the right to debar any citizen from bearing arms in the service of his country. He can surround himself with creatures subservient to his will; and who, looking at the pliancy of said General, as exhibited in his truckling to Washburne, et id genus omne, can doubt the result?

Said General can, under the extraordinary power in this bill conferred, arm every negro in the South and disarm every white man. Ye gods! what a spectacle! Men of Caucasian blood, men who are brothers in blood, men who rejoice in the same common traditions, doomed by the brainless leader of the Radical party to abject subserviency to the descendants of Congoes and Hottentots!

Force overcomes obstacles. May we not be acting over again the tale of civil liberty prostrated beneath the licentious feet of Praetorian cohorts! There are obstacles to be encountered, it is true. Deep down in the hearts of the American people there throbs a pulse for liberty which may in time bring back to us the happy days of old. This feeling stands in the breach. But heartthrobs alone cannot successfully oppose the clinching argument of the bullet and the blade. Force can alone overcome force.

But it may be asked why this anxiety? Why this foreboding? Simply because we believe that this is a scheme of the Radical party to prepare themselves for war. Feeling that the majority of the people will be against them at the next election, they have determined to create a standing army, at the head of which they will place their pliant tools. The General of our armies will declare all the militia as "disloil" who do not wear by Stevens and Butler, and an organized and armed phalanx of blacks and "free labor" whites will, under the rule of Grant's satellites, place whom they please in the Presidential chair.

Can any man of common intelligence require more to convince him of the utter disregard by the Radical party of all those principles upon which the Government was established? Can any man view the desperate measures inaugurated for a concentration of the functions of the Government in the hands of a legislative majority without feeling the most lively alarm? Has not the attempt to abolish the Supreme Court to destroy the power of the Executive, to overthrow the rights reserved to the States under the Constitution, to violate the sanctity of the public mails and private telegraphic despatches, and to do away with all that is revered as good and salutary in a republican government, admonished the people of what is to come? One may be excused for sleeping above a volcano of whose existence he is ignorant; but when the flames are springing up, and the lava should threaten instant destruction, it must be a strange fatuity which prevents provision for safety. Around and about us now, citizens, a lava cloud is impending, far more to be dreaded than ever was Vesuvius by the awe struck peasantry at its base. If this nation shall be delivered over to irresponsible military control; if the Radical desperadoes shall be triumphant; if our theory of government is to be quashed; if, instead of the high destiny which seemed to have been marked out for us by Providence as the home of the oppressed and the refuge of the down-trodden, we are to repeat the lessons of history, let us be able to show to posterity that such a lamentable catastrophe was not the result of apathy. Let us show that we fought the good fight bravely, and succumbed only when resistance was of no avail.

In conclusion, this bill is a preparation for an anticipated war. It is a provision for an installation by force of arms of the Radical candidates, even if the majority of the people should declare against them. It is a declaration that, whatever betide, the Radical party will maintain its supremacy.

Citizens, it is for you to decide whether these treacherous designs shall be accomplished. It is for you to say whether the people, the solid masses of the country, shall rule this Government. It is for you to say whether revolution and despotism shall be trampled into the dust. It is for you, finally, to say whether this Republic shall die, or whether it shall live, a beacon light to the oppressed of every age, condition and clime. Let the next November election give the verdict.

GRANT'S INTOLERANCE.

No attempt has been made by the Radical press to deny or explain away Grant's intolerant hatred of the "Jews." In Tennessee, Northern Mississippi, and Kentucky, law-abiding and inoffensive citizens of the ancient faith—even helpless women and children—were ruthlessly driven from their homes by an infamous order of Gen. Grant. Mr. Pendleton first drew attention to it in the House of Representatives by a resolution revoking its operation.

L. W. Powell, then United States Senator from Kentucky, spoke as follows in that body, according to the official report in the Congressional Globe:

"Mr. President, the day after the resolution was introduced I understood from Gen. Halleck that the matter had been laid before the President, and that the order had been promptly revoked. The conduct of the President and of the Commander-in Chief in thus promptly countermanding such an outrageous, unconstitutional, and inhuman order meets with my hearty approval. I commend them for it.

The order having been countermanded, I desire to move that the last clause of the resolution be stricken out, and after that is stricken out, I desire to have the action of the Senate upon the resolution. Gentlemen may say—the order having been revoked—it is unnecessary that this body should take action upon it. That seems to be the intimation of the gentleman from New Hampshire. I look upon the matter otherwise. I have in my possession all the documents that go to establish the fact, beyond the possibility of a doubt, that the Jews, residents in the city of Paducah, Kentucky, some thirty gentlemen in number, were driven from their homes and their business by virtue of this order of Gen. Grant, only having the short notice of twenty-four hours; that the Jewish women and children of that city were expelled under that order; and there was not a Jew left—man, woman, or child—except two women, who were prostrate on beds of sickness. I have evidence before me, set forth in a petition, and attested by some twelve or fourteen of the most respectable Union citizens of the city of Paducah, among others the surveyor of the port, that these Jews of Paducah had at no time been engaged in trade within the active lines of Gen. Grant; that they had all the while been engaged in legitimate business at their homes, and that there was but one Jew, a resident of Paducah, who had gone out of the State into the cotton region, and that one was not at home, and consequently was not expelled from his residence by this ruthless order."

The order in question proves Grant's fitness to be the candidate of a party whose chief corner-stone is social, political and religious intolerance. Freedom to worship God according to the dictates of conscience is a meaningless number of words to these lunatics who "work outside the Constitution," and who reward bigotry and intolerance by the highest honors within the gift of their party.

THE ELECTORAL VOTE.—In speaking of the Radical schemes for tampering with the counting of the electoral vote, the New York World of Saturday says:

"It is proper that the usurping demagogues in the Federal capitol should be warned in time against proceeding to such extremities that forbearance would cease to be a virtue. The actual majority of the citizens of the United States must have a fair opportunity to decide who shall govern the country. If the will of the majority is defeated by political knavery, they will have power (being a majority) to redress the wrong, and Congress mistakes the temper of American freemen if it supposes that they will not have also the will. If we are fairly beaten after an honest election, we understand and shall practice the proper virtue of a minority—submission. But we shall not tamely submit to be cheated. If the Republican party administer the Government for the next four years, it must be in virtue of an actual majority, not a fictitious majority obtained by proscription and exclusion. The physical power of the country resides with the arithmetical majority, and as the Constitution has provided no other tribunal for deciding on the claim of electoral votes to be counted, it concerns the peace of the country that Congress do not interfere to prevent the voice of the actual majority from deciding who shall be President.

"This warning cannot be construed as a threat, without a confession that the Republicans intend to stifle votes that ought to be counted, and to declare their candidates elected, even though they should receive but a minority of the whole number of electoral votes. In the interest of peace, we beseech them to permit a fair election."

The Washington correspondent of the Tribune announces that there is no probability of the bill for the reduction of the army, passing Congress. This is as might be expected. Whoever knew the Republican party to be anything else than the party of false pretensions. Their record ever since the foundation of the party shows that. They now talk about economy and reducing the expenses of the government, but the moment that a measure is proposed which will aid in bringing about that result, they have no time to attend to its passage, but each and all measures which will increase the expenses of the Government, and add to the burdens of the people, they rush through in hot haste. They have no time to legislate in the interest of the people, but plenty of time to devote to purely party measures.—N. Y. World.

They have a new drink down East they call "Butler cocktails." You stir it up with a spoon, squint one eye, drink the liquor down, and put the spoon in your pocket.

NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC TICKET!

FOR PRESIDENT,

HON. HORATIO SEYMOUR,

OF NEW YORK.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT,

GEN. FRANK P. BLAIR,

OF MISSOURI.

THE FENCE MEN.

Frankness and decision of character, in all matters, are essential to confidence. A "fence man," in religion or politics, is a most detestable creature. "I would thou wert either cold or hot, but because thou art neither cold nor hot, I will spew thee out of my mouth."

We have been struck with the large number of persons in this State, who, under circumstances that call for the highest nerve and fearlessness, are disposed to conceal their political feelings and views,—who whisper, when they allude to their course,—and who seem to be in constant dread and alarm, if they are known to be decided and fixed in their position, one way or another, lest they will lose a little trade, be injured in their business, or suffer some small detriment for being an honest, decided, independent citizen. Such men ought to be ashamed to call themselves American citizens. Their dead fathers, if it were possible, would stir in their graves at so shameful a want of manliness.

There are merchants, mechanics, tradesmen and professional men, all over the State, who seem to be so timid, timeserving and unmanly, that they are afraid to be known as having any political sentiments. They seem to think it very independent to say, "I have nothing to do with politics." Then nobody should have anything to do with you. If you are so selfish, cowardly and unmanly, that you have no patriotism, no love of country, no devotion to the Constitution, and are perfectly willing to let the Radicals and Revolutionists destroy your government, if you can only make a little money and take care of No. 1, then you are unfit for the privileges of citizenship, undeserving of the countenance and support of any honest man and patriot. You are unworthy sons of the men who fought, bled and died to secure American freedom to posterity.

The time has arrived, when the true men of the State will no longer brook this mean, cowardly spirit which so extensively prevails. Our people must get on one side or the other, and must be decided in their course. We must either be Radicals, or Democrats and Conservatives. We must either stand up for the Constitution, the preservation of our liberty and our government, or we must go with the Destructives and sustain Congress and the Radical party in its purpose to destroy the government.—You must take one side or the other. An honest, outspoken Radical we would trade with or help, much sooner than one who is a Conservative among Conservatives and a Radical among Radicals, or one who says he has nothing to do with politics. The time was, perhaps, when a man could safely take that position,—when the existence of the government was not in jeopardy,—when it mattered little whether a man belonged to this or that party, because both parties sought the welfare of the country and government. But, now, it is otherwise. A man's character, his standing in society, his patriotism, his liberty, depend upon which side he is on. He is either a friend of the Constitution and of the government of our fathers or he is an enemy to them. Carpet-baggers and scallawags, for the sake of office and profit, do not hesitate to say, "I am for Congress against the Constitution; i. e. against the government," and yet these miscreants do not hesitate to call Conservative men, who stand up for the Constitution and the government, "rebels" and "traitors."

Let every man, honestly and independently, take one side or the other. MUST BE ONE THING OR ANOTHER. You must openly avow yourself to be a Grant and Colfax man, or a Seymour and Blair man. Public opinion will not allow you to be undecided, any longer. Take your position like a man, and cling to it if the stars fall. No other kind of man will do for this crisis. The idea that, because a man is poor and dependent upon the community for work, he must, therefore, keep dark, at a time like this, is shocking. Beg from door to door, rather than be a hypocritical trimmer, a two sided man, or one who has no side, no opinions, no manhood!

GEN. FRANCIS P. BLAIR.—The Radical paper in this city, we are told, is indulging in various misstatements in regard to Gen. Blair, with the view of affecting his acceptability among us. Gen. Blair did many things in that dreadful march from Atlanta to Raleigh, no doubt, acting under the orders of Gen. Grant, and his more immediate commander, Gen. Sherman, which we can never approve, and which, doubtless, have caused him no little pain; but it is not true that the Neuse River paper mill was burned by Gen. Blair's orders. One of the proprietors assures us it was not Gen. Blair, but some other General, who ordered it. Other charges are no doubt equally untrue as to Gen. Blair, but which lie with great force against Gen. Grant, the Chief in Command. Many of the subordinates were great bummers and butchers, but Gen. Grant was the chief butcher, as facts prove.

CONSTITUTION AND BY-LAWS FOR CLUBS.

We have received letters from several sources, requesting us to send printed copies of a Constitution and By Laws for the organization of Seymour and Blair Clubs.—Having none on hand, and no funds to print them, we have prepared the following Constitution and By Laws, as a guide for Clubs, and submit them to the consideration of our friends. They were submitted to the Young Men's meeting to form a Seymour and Blair Club, in this city, on Tuesday night, and unanimously adopted:

CONSTITUTION.

ARTICLE 1st. This Association shall be styled the ——— Club of ——— of North Carolina.

ART. 2. The objects of this Association are as follows: To unite in close political compact every Democrat, Conservative, or by whatever name known, in North Carolina for the support and defence of the Constitution of the United States; the restoration of the States and peace and harmony of the Union; the proper enforcement of law and order by legitimate forms, and the utter destruction of Radicalism every where by the election of HORATIO SEYMOUR, of New York, as President, and FRANCIS P. BLAIR, of Missouri, as Vice President, and all other Democratic and Conservative nominees for any office; and, further, to promote the mutual benefit and protection of each other in all lawful pursuits, aiding each other in business, as being members of one great political family, seeking to promote each other's welfare, and especially to extend such aid to those who have been or may be ignored or proscribed by the Radical party, as the Association may be able.

ART. 3. The officers of this Club shall consist of a President, three Vice Presidents, a Recording Secretary and a Treasurer, who shall perform the duties usual to such offices, and who together with Five Directors, shall be elected annually at the annual meeting of the Association and shall constitute an Executive Board, to whom shall be committed the interests of the Club.

ART. 4. This Constitution, and such By-Laws or Regulations as the Club may adopt, may be altered, amended or changed at any public meeting of the Club by a vote of two thirds of the members present.

SUBSCRIPTION.

We, whose names are hereto annexed do solemnly pledge our word and sacred honor, constantly and faithfully to promote the objects and aims of this Club as set forth in the foregoing Constitution, and do hold ourselves ready to defend the same, and to protect, to the extent of our ability, every member of this Association throughout the State.

BY-LAWS AND REGULATIONS.

1. Every member of this Club shall sign and subscribe the Constitution, in order to recognition.

2. All monied contributions to the objects of the Association shall be voluntary, and shall be held by the Treasurer, who shall keep an exact account and disburse the same only on the order of the Executive Board, to whom he shall submit his accounts when ordered.

3. The Club shall order its public meetings when and where it chooses, and the President may call meetings when desirable, but the Executive Board, or such of its members as may be designated, shall select speakers and make all necessary arrangements.

4. Each member of the Executive Board is hereby appointed a Committee to solicit names for membership, also monied donations for the objects of the Club, and to attend to the general interests of the Club, such as directing the correspondence, procuring and circulating documents, &c.

5. The Executive Board shall meet to transact the private business of the Club as often as it may order, (and the officers of the Club shall be ex officio of the Board;) but the names of members shall be presented for registration or dismissal for good cause, to consider the financial business of the Club, and such other private matters as may be necessary. All members of the Club may attend the private meetings of the Board when convenient, and may give counsel, but the business of the Board will be determined by the vote of the Board itself.

6. Members of the Club, intending to move to any other section, may obtain a certificate of his membership in this Club, if he desire it, to be signed by the President and Secretary.

7. The Executive Board of each Club will give special attention to all matters of registration, voting, &c., see that all do their duty, and that the law is strictly observed, that all fraud or mal-practice is detected and duly punished.

REMARKS.

1. In South Carolina, Georgia, Mississippi and other Southern States, strong Democratic Clubs are being formed, composed of colored citizens. The Constitution above is so worded that it can be adapted to any place or persons. If Democratic Clubs can be formed entirely of colored persons, perhaps it will be best; but where there are few, the Cubs may decide to enter them on their registers or not, as they may elect.

2. We would suggest that Young Men's Clubs, everywhere, should embrace all young men, from 18 years of age, and upwards. Many old men are faint-hearted, timid, afraid to let people know their political status. Take in the young men, who have the pluck, and who may be educated to love the Constitution and the country, and who will always vote right, when they become of age. We need the ardor and boldness of youth, as well as the prudence and wisdom of age. The necessity for this, however, would be obviated, if the young men, under the age of 21, would form Clubs of their own.

3. We insist upon forming Clubs in every Ward, in every precinct and Captain's District in the State, where 25 or 30 members, and as many more as possible, can be obtained. The more the better. The talent and energy of all our people must be brought out. It will not do to let the old men and the old party managers do all the managing and the talking. We must put every man in some position to be useful. By having a Club in every Ward and every neighborhood, we can find room for a great many as officers and talkers and working men. We can have our Club meetings out of doors, these pleasant nights, by moonlight or camp fires, and there will be a chance for every man, who can make a talk, or a little speech, or a great speech, to do something in that line. Let the Clubs be formed. Bring out all our men to work for the Constitution and the country, and let us save them by the election of Seymour and Blair!

A CLEAR GAIN OF THREE HUNDRED.—Gen. R. B. Scott, Radical "Governor" of South Carolina, (a native of Pennsylvania) while a prisoner in Charleston during the war, was befriended by one Quimby. Scott drew on Keans & Smith, of Toledo, Ohio, for $300, payable in gold, and on this draft Quimby raised money for Scott's use, as an accommodation, purely. The draft was sent for collection through the blockade, via Nassau, but before it reached the Toledo bankers Scott was exchanged, and instructed them not to pay it. The draft was returned to Charleston dishonored, and is still unsatisfied. The holder has been advertised to sue Scott, but has not done so, probably having a share of that wisdom with which the fox was inspired by the fate of the ass. So the probability is, that by the wholesome terror of his name, the bogus Governor in this matter will go Scott-free! A clear gain for the Radicals of three hundred!

The Boston Advertiser finally thinks it will require some exertion to defeat Seymour, and Philosopher Greeley admits that Grant and Colfax can be elected "only by hard, steady labor."

GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF NORTH CAROLINA.

BY AUTHORITY OF CONGRESS.

FIRST SESSION.

SENATE.

WEDNESDAY, July 22, 1868.

The Senate was called to order at 10 o'clock.

Prayer by the Rev. T. H. Pritchard, of the city.

INTRODUCTION OF BILLS.

By Mr Robbins: A bill in relation to the records of the late Courts of Equity.

By Mr. Respass: A bill to change the time of listing and collecting county and State taxes.

By the same: A bill to amend sec. 8, chap. 42, Revised Code, entitled "Entries and Grants."

By Mr. Love: A resolution, instructing the Committee on Salaries and Fees to report a bill regulating the salaries of Public Officers.

By Mr. White: A resolution, instructing the Judiciary Committee to report a bill providing for a uniform system of Land Valuation in the State.

The following bills were taken up and disposed of:

The bill in relation to Provisional Municipal officers passed its third reading, by the following vote:

Those who voted in the affirmative are, Messrs. Bellamy, Brogden, Burns, Blythe, Colgrove, Cook, Davis, Eaves, Etheridge, Epps, (negro.) Forkner, Galloway, (negro.) Hayes, Harrington, Hall, Hyman, (negro.) Legg, Lassiter, Long, Martindale, Moore, of Carteret, Rich, Respass, Smith, Sweet, White and Winstead.

Those who voted in the negative are, Messrs. Barnes, Lindsay, Love, Melchor, Mason, Osborne, Purdie, Robbins and Wynne.

Bill for the relief of Willis S. Grandy, of Granville County, passed its third reading.

Resolution instructing the Code Commissioners to report a bill regarding "Registration for the State, passed.

Bill authorizing the Superintendent of Public Works to procure a room, at an expense not to exceed $30 per month, for the use of his department, was referred to the Committee on Salaries and Fees.

Bill to amend an act to incorporate the Greenville & French Broad Rail Road Company, was referred to the Committee on Internal Improvements.

Bill for the protection of mechanics and other laborers, was referred to the Committee on the Judiciary, and ordered to be printed.

Bill in relation to legal process was referred to the Committee on the Judiciary.

Resolution instructing the Committee on Printing to furnish the Code Commissioners a printed copy of each bill and resolution passed by this General Assembly, passed.

Resolution allowing per diem and mileage to those Senators who are banned by the Howard amendment, was rejected by a party vote.

Bill concerning Inspectors for the city of Wilmington, with amendments proposed by the Select Committee:

Galloway, (negro,) opposed the bill in its present form, as coming from the Committee, and pronounced it unjust to the citizens of Wilmington. Their interests had been overslaughed entirely. They nor their representatives had been consulted in regard to the matter, but, on the contrary, when he was stricken down by sickness, an interested man from Pitt county had introduced this bill. He was visited in his room by this clique and asked to support the bill. He told them he would not. They then begged that he would not offer any opposition to it. We can get any quantity of bills from the House—large budgets of them; but, generally, they are imperfect, and we have to make them readable and return them back. The bill which they sent to us, regarding registration for the city of Wilmington, was all in a muddle, and had to be returned to them. He was for a bill that will represent the interests of the people of Wilmington. He, therefore, moved that the bill be printed and laid on the desks of Senators, in order that it may be perfected.

The bill was ordered to be printed, for the purpose designated.

Resolution on adjournment, proposing to adjourn on the 10th. of August, to meet again on the 10th. of November, was amended, without specifying the time for reassembling, and passed.

Resolution instructing the Committee on Military affairs to report a bill for the organization of the State militia, passed.

Bill providing for filling vacancies occurring in the offices provided for in Article 7 of the Constitution of North Carolina:

Mr. Robbins offered to amend the title of the bill, so as to read, "An act to make the Governor Dictator."

The Speaker ruled that it was not in order to amend the bill, on its third reading, and the question recurring on the passage of the bill on its third reading, the ayes and nays were called and the bill passed.

Those who voted in the affirmative were: Messrs. Bellamy, Brogden, Burns, Blythe, Colgrove, Cook, Davis, Eaves, Etheridge, Epps, negro, Forkner, Galloway, negro, Hayes, Harrington, Hall, Hyman, negro, Jones, of Wake, Legg, Lassiter, Long, Martindale, Moore, of Carteret, Rich, Respass, Smith, Sweet, White and Winstead.

Those who voted in the negative were: Messrs. Barnes, Lindsay, Love, Melchor, Mason, Osborne, Purdie, Robbins and Wynne.

Bill in relation to the records of the late County Courts, passed its second reading.

Mr. Sweet's resolution, instructing the Secretary of State to furnish a tabular statement of the late election returns, for each member of the General Assembly:

Mr. Sweet offered to amend, by authorizing the Secretary to employ necessary clerical assistance to accomplish this object.

Messrs. Osborne, Lassiter, Love and Barnes opposed the resolution, on the ground that it was unnecessary and an additional expense to the State, and not relating to legislative matters.

Mr. Sweet supported the resolution, and, on motion of Mr. Barnes, it was referred to the Committee on Salaries and Fees.

The Senate then adjourned.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

[BY UNDERGROUND RAILROAD.]

WEDNESDAY, July 22, 1868.

The House was called to order at 10 o'clock.

Journal of yesterday read and approved.

Seymour, from the Committee on the Judiciary, reported back a bill to prevent the distillation of grain, and recommended that it do not pass.

Mr. Barnett, from the Committee on Corporations, reported back several bills, which were placed upon the calendar, for future consideration.

By Stilly: A resolution providing that no resolution shall be entertained, petitioning Congress to remove the disabilities of those members banned by the provisions of the Howard amendment.

Stilly moved to suspend the rules and adopt.

Mr. Durham said that a member had a right to introduce any resolution, that he saw fit, and he wanted to know if Mr. Stilly denied that. If a member was debarred that privilege, then this was not a legislative body.

Mr. Pou also opposed the resolution.

Justice, of Rutherford, thought all resolutions looking to a general removal of disabilities from men of all parties should be dispensed with. He was in favor of each party recommending their own adherents.

Seymour moved to postpone the resolution until to-morrow, and that it be made the special order. Carried.

Seymour moved to reconsider the vote, by which the majority Report of the Special Committee, appointed to investigate the contested election in Camden County, was adopted.

Harris, of Wake, negro, opposed the motion to reconsider the vote. He said he was unwilling to consume any more time in the discussion of the matter, as it had been considered by the Committee, reported upon, and that report adopted. He moved to lay the motion to reconsider on the table.

The yeas and nays were called upon the motion and resulted, yeas 24, nays 60.

Seymour said that the Constitution, under which they were assembled, expressly provided that all laws, and clauses of laws, not repugnant to that Constitution and the Constitution of the United States, should continue in full force and effect, until lawfully altered; and, therefore, the proceeding in this case should be regulated according to the provisions of Chapter 52, Revised Code. By the letter and spirit of their Constitution, they had no other way to proceed. The contestant might have carried the matter before Gen. Canby, and he could have instituted an investigation regulated in such a manner as he saw fit, but that was not done, and now that it is brought before the House, they were compelled to proceed in the manner pointed out by the present law.

Pending the further discussion of the matter, the Chair announced the special order, viz: "The bill to prevent the sale of spirituous liquors in five miles of any election."

The question recurred upon the amendment offered by Mr. Bowman, also prohibiting the sale of liquor during the sitting of the Superior Court.

Mr. Bowman being kept from his seat by sickness, the consideration of the bill was, on motion, postponed until Tuesday next, 11 o'clock.

The hour of twelve having arrived, the Speaker announced the resolution offered by Downing, declaring offices, to which persons banned by the 14th. Article had been elected, vacant, and conferring upon the so-called Governor the power to fill by appointment, as the special order for that hour.

After some discussion, a substitute, which had been previously introduced by Seymour, was adopted.

(The substitute empowers County Commissioners to summon before them the various county officers elected and question them as to their competency to hold office under the Howard Amendment. If they are found to be disqualified, the "Governor" shall fill the vacancies. There are other provisions in the Bill, but this is the gist of it.)

The Chair then announced that the unfinished business would be now taken up, and discussion of the contested election in Camden county was resumed.

The question recurred upon Seymour's motion to reconsider the motion, by which the majority report was adopted. He advocated the motion at some length, and, in concluding, called the previous question upon his motion.

The call was sustained, and the motion being put was carried.

Seymour then moved the adoption of the minority report, and, upon the motion, called the yeas and nays.

The call being sustained, the roll was called, and resulted in the adoption of the motion to substitute.

Ashworth, from the Committee on Military affairs, reported a bill, which was made the Special Order for Friday next, without being read.

By Vest: A bill in relation to the meeting of the County Commissioners—fixing their pay at $3 per day, while engaged in transacting business, and 5 cents mileage. The bill was ordered to be printed.

Mr. Sinclair moved to reconsider the vote, by which the minority report in the affair of the Camden county election was adopted.

Mr. Ellis moved to lay that motion on the table.

The motion was put and carried.

By Mr. Pou: A resolution in regard to the issuing of marriage licenses. Referred.

After some further unimportant business, the House then adjourned.

VERMONT DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION.

The Democratic State Convention of Vermont, held at Montpelier on the 16th instant, is said to have surpassed in number and character any party demonstration made in Vermont for ten years. The following are the resolutions adopted:

Resolved, That in the approaching Presidential canvass the question of civil and constitutional liberty on the one hand and military force and absolute despotism on the other is to be met and decided.

Resolved, That we heartily endorse the platform of principles adopted by the National Democratic Convention at its last session in the city of New York.

Resolved, That in Horatio Seymour we recognize the eminent statesman who looks to the constitution and the laws as the bulwark of liberty and the sole guaranty of the Union; as one who looks at least to the conservation of the constitution and who possesses the charities and amenities of the Christian gentleman; and in General F. P. Blair we recognize the experienced legislator and hero soldier, who fought for the Union and demands that the nation shall have the benefit of our national victory; and both shall receive our hearty and undivided support.

Resolved, That the candidates this day nominated shall receive our hearty support.

GRAND RATIFICATION MEETING IN NEW ORLEANS.

NEW ORLEANS, July 19.

A prominent feature on the stand at the Democratic ratification meeting last night was a number of Catholic clergymen. Two colored representatives of colored Democratic clubs were also on the stand. A large number of negroes were in the procession.—The principal streets of the city were as bright as day with the illumination. The offices of the Democratic newspapers, the principal business houses and places of public resort, blazed with light, and were covered with suggestive inscriptions.—Crowds of ladies without escorts filled the streets. The most perfect order was maintained; not a single disturbance has been heard of.

The Radicals find it necessary to resort to the most absurd fictions and calumnies in their attempts to disparage Gov. Seymour. Even the New York Post is not ashamed to insinuate that insanity is hereditary in the Governor's family. In Jefferson's time the editor of the Post wrote sonnets ridiculing him, and the party to which the editor then belonged called Jefferson an infidel, and said, if he were elected, he would burn all the Bibles.

MARRIED:

In Greensboro', on the 14th inst., Dr. J. E. Logan to Miss FANNY NASH, eldest daughter of R. M. Nash.

DIED:

In Richmond, Va., on the morning of the 20th inst., JOHN W., son of Marcellus and Cynthia B. Pepper, aged 6 years, 8 months and 1 day.

COLLEGES AND SCHOOLS.

Louisburg Female College,

FRANKLIN CO., N. C.

THE FALL SESSION OF 1868 will begin on the 13th day of August.

The success of the institution, under its present administration, has far surpassed the expectations of its most sanguine friends.

CHARGES PER SESSION OF 20 WEEKS:

Board (exclusive of washing and lights) and Tuition in the regular English course and Ancient Languages, $100. Extra Studies moderate. $50 in advance,—remainder at the end of the session.

ADVANTAGES.

An able, energetic, and successful Faculty; an extensive and wisely arranged course of study; a judicious and thorough system of instruction; a select Chemical and Philosophical apparatus; a good Library; fine Musical Instruments; a beautiful, pleasant, and healthful location; a large, commodious building, with rooms well ventilated and well warmed in winter; excellent water, good fare; kind attention to the wants of the pupils; mild and efficient government, and ample Religious privileges.

For Circulars, containing full particulars, apply to T. M. JONES, June 13-tf President.

Wake Forest College, N. C.

THE FALL TERM OF THIS INSTITUTION will open on the first day of August, 1868, with the prospect of increased patronage and success. The complete assurance given at the recent Commencement of the adaptedness of the University system to the wants of the times, and of its feasibility, encourages its friends to believe that the College has entered upon a career of popularity and usefulness hitherto unknown in its history. The financial embarrassments to which all Southern Colleges have been subjected are not felt to the same extent at Wake Forest, as at some others, in consequence of the considerable amount of original endowment saved, and of the favorable reception with which the Agent of the College meets in securing additional funds. An expenditure of more than $2,000 has been recently made in improving the condition of the building and grounds.

Determined to bring its advantages within reach of the largest number possible, the Trustees, seconded by the community, have reduced the price of Board and Tuition to the lowest practicable rates.

The officers of instruction are gentlemen of tried ability in their several departments, and the success attending their efforts in the past is the best guarantee the public can have for the future.

The location of the College in point of healthfulness and accessibility, (being situated on the Raleigh & Gaston Railroad, a few miles from the Capital of the State,) is not surpassed by that of any other in the land; while the moral and social influences connected with and surrounding it, and the peculiar discipline enforced, present inducements to patronage of no ordinary kind.

A system of PUBLIC LECTURES on literary and scientific subjects has been introduced, with a view to increase the interest of the young men in the several departments of study, and to furnish additional incentives to investigation and research.

Extensive and well selected LIBRARIES belonging to the Societies, and complete APPARATUS, PHILOSOPHICAL and CHEMICAL, are not to be omitted in the enumeration of the advantages possessed.

Another encouraging feature is that there are, at present, thirteen young men engaged in studies preparatory to the work of the Ministry; and it may not be amiss to state that any Minister, who may apply for admission, will receive tuition in all the departments free of charge, and those of this class, who are without means, are encouraged to apply to the Board of Education for further assistance.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—We invite attention to the various announcements of our enterprising young friends, G. T. & W. C. Stronach.

Choice Maryland Seed Wheat: W. H. Jones & Co.

"Splendid Chance for a Home,—Bona fide Raffle:" W. O. Respess, Washington, N. C.

Messrs. W. H. & R. S. Tucker & Co. continue to prosecute a vigorous campaign.—We invite attention to their announcement in this morning's issue.

YOUNG MEN'S SEYMOUR AND BLAIR CLUB.—We publish, in another column, the proceedings of the Young Men's meeting in this city, on Tuesday evening, for the purpose of organizing a Seymour and Blair Club. We are gratified to learn that the meeting was a large and enthusiastic one, and that the finest spirit prevailed.—The gallant young men of Raleigh have set the ball in motion, and they are determined to know no abatement of energy or activity between this and the day of election. They have enlisted in the cause of the Constitution, and they intend to "fight it out on that line." There is much talent among them, and we hope to see it, combined with all of their youthful ardor, afforded a full opportunity for scope and development.—Let them have frequent meetings and demonstrations, conducted with all the spirit and enthusiasm of which they are capable.

We hear the speeches of Capt. DeCarteret and Mr. Busbee, in the meeting of Tuesday night, spoken of in the highest terms. The latter, on taking the Chair, addressed the Club very happily and eloquently; and Capt. DeCarteret, who was in attendance upon the New York Convention, gave an interesting and graphic account of the proceedings there, discussed the platform with ability, and made a stirring appeal to the young men to do their duty in the great contest before them. Both gentlemen were enthusiastically applauded.

YESTERDAY.

The Senate, with slavish sycophancy and blind malignity, on yesterday, passed the Bill vacating all the municipal offices in the State, and authorizing the man, "who writes himself Governor," to fill them by appointment, and, also, the Bill empowering the same individual to fill all vacancies occurring in the Boards of County Commissioners, &c. Both of these measures are shamefully violative of the Radical Constitution, which these men have so recently sworn to support, and invest the "Governor" with dictatorial and despotic power. They will outrage the public sentiment of the State, as they do every principle of popular liberty, and, when carried into practical operation, with Africanized counties, towns, cities and villages, the gravest results may be apprehended. There is no occasion for comment, at our hands; nothing that we might say can check the crazy malice which is bringing ruin upon the State and our people.

The meanest and most characteristic thing of the session was the rejection of the bill allowing per diem and mileage to the banned members, who have been in attendance since the commencement of the session, and who have been unlawfully excluded from their seats.

In the House, another infamous bill, "declaring the 'Governor' Dictator," was adopted,—for a view of which, see proceedings. We shall publish these various usurpations, in extenso, hereafter.

HON. BEDFORD BROWN.—We mentioned, a day or two since, that this veteran patriot addressed a large and enthusiastic meeting of the Democratic and Conservative citizens of Caswell, at Yanceyville, last week. We have been furnished with a full report of his speech, on the occasion, which shall appear to-morrow.

MR. GREENE, OF STANLY.—We regret to learn that L. Greene, Esq., the worthy member of the House of Representatives from Stanly county, who left Raleigh, a few days since, for the purpose of a short visit home, has had the misfortune to have his leg broken, by being thrown from a buggy.—We fear that this accident will detain Mr. Greene from his seat for some time.

SUDDEN DEATH OF A MEMBER OF THE LEGISLATURE.—Lorenzo D. Hall, Senator from the county of Sampson, died very suddenly at his lodgings, in this city, on yesterday afternoon. He had eaten a hearty dinner, we learn, and soon thereafter fell dead,—we presume of apoplexy.

SMITH'S DICTIONARY OF THE BIBLE.—We are indebted to Messrs. S. S. Scranton & Co., the Publishers, through the hands of Wm. H. Crow, Esq., of this city, for a copy of Rev. Dr. Smith's Dictionary of the Bible, which seems to be a very thorough work on the Scriptural geography, history, customs, &c. It has been compiled from the best sources by a corps of very able men, and is a valuable contribution to the Biblical learning of the times. The student of the Bible and Sunday School teachers and pupils will find it very valuable.

BAYNE'S PATENT SCRUBS.—Mr. Lippitt has received (at Cooke's Hotel) another lot of these indispensable household brushes.—He will remain in the City only a day or two longer. Let no house keeper fail to be supplied.

Eleven magnificent horses from the Northwest of France, for the purpose of breeding draught horses, have arrived in New York. Eleven more horses, six of which are to be taken to Ohio, are expected by the next French steamer. A six year old stallion, which was of the lot just arrived, stands 16 hands high and weighs 1,700 pounds, and a three year old weighs 1,400 pounds.

Greeley is trying to make out that Horatio Seymour advocated secession at the opening of our difficulties. If it were true, and if it be charged as a crime against him besides, what does Greeley think of his own recommendation, in February, 1861, to let the South go if it would, for he believed no Union possible that was "pinned together with bayonets?"—Boston Post.

YOUNG MEN'S SEYMOUR AND BLAIR CLUB,

AT THE MAYOR'S OFFICE,

TUESDAY EVENING, JULY 21st, 1868.

The meeting temporarily organized by calling Mr. J. A. Collins to the Chair,—Albert Magnin acting as temporary Secretary.

Chas. M. Busbee, Esq., in response to calls, addressed the meeting, explaining the object to be the formation of a Young Men's Seymour and Blair Club, for the overthrow of Radicalism, &c.

On motion of C. M. Busbee, Esq., a Committee of five were appointed to draft a Constitution.

The Chair appointed the following gentlemen as the Committee for that purpose:—Messrs. C. M. Busbee, J. Q. DeCarteret, W. E. Pell, Jr., A. D. Royster and R. H. Ray.

On motion of C. M. Busbee, Esq., a Committee of five were appointed to select permanent officers for the Club, and the following were appointed as the Committee, viz: Messrs. E. F. Page, Jno. C. Syme, J. C. Marcom, W. H. Harrison and George H. Snow.

The Committee to draft a Constitution reported a Constitution, By-Laws and regulations, which were, on motion, unanimously adopted.

[For Constitution, &c., see elsewhere in to-day's Sentinel.]

Pending the report of the Committee on permanent officers, Capt. DeCarteret, being called for, addressed the meeting in a spirited and eloquent speech, which called forth great applause.

The Committee on permanent officers reported as follows:

President.—Chas. M. Busbee.

Vice Presidents.—J. C. Marcom, J. C. Birdsong, A. D. Royster.

Recording Secretary.—Albert Magnin.

Corresponding Secretary.—W. E. Pell, Jr.

Treasurer.—J. A. Collins.

Directors.—J. Q. A. DeCarteret, W. H. Bledsoe, Len. H. Adams, John T. Womble, G. L. Horton.

Which report was, on motion, unanimously adopted.

On assuming the duties of the Chair, Mr. Busbee addressed the Club in an eloquent and effective manner, which greatly delighted the meeting.

Mr. Theo. N. Ramsay offered the following Resolutions, which were unanimously adopted viz:

Resolved, That confiding in the superior wisdom, integrity and virtue of our fathers, we, their sons, do declare our devotion to the fundamental principles of civil liberty, as contained in the Constitution of the United States, and our eternal hostility to the fanatical "higher law" doctrines of the times and the usurpations of Congress, by which the Constitution has been ignored and the powers both of the Executive and Judicial departments of the government have been usurped by the National Legislature.

Resolved, That we regard the entire series of reconstruction acts, from first to last, as unconstitutional, unjust to the Southern people, and unworthy of the great nation in whose name this crime of reconstruction has been committed.

Resolved, That we hail the platform of principles recently put forth by the National Democratic Convention in New York, and the nomination of Horatio Seymour, of New York, and Francis P. Blair, of Missouri, as the leaders of the great army of the Constitution, as the harbinger of better days to the Republic, and as a pledge that the American people will knock off the shackles of the South, and restore again the Constitution and the Union.

Resolved, That we pledge ourselves to labor for the propagation and establishment of the principles of the National Democratic platform, and the election of the nominees.

Resolved, That while we are the advocates of law and order, and of becoming submission "to the powers that be," yet we shall ever labor, by all lawful means, for the restoration and establishment of a truly republican State Government, in the place of the bogus government forced upon us by Congress.

On motion, those desiring to become members of the Club proceeded to sign the Constitution.

Fifty-three names were at once enrolled.

Calls being made for Mr. G. H. Snow and Mr. W. H. Bledsoe, those gentlemen addressed the Club in brief but pointed and appropriate remarks.

On motion, it was resolved that the proceedings of this meeting be published in the Raleigh Sentinel.

On motion, the meeting adjourned, to meet on next Tuesday night.

STATE NEWS.

There is to be a great Democratic Ratification meeting in Goldsboro, on Saturday.

The Wilmington Star is responsible for the following:

"A little misunderstanding occurred yesterday morning between A. H. Galloway, (col.) Senator from New Hanover county, and some of his constituents, growing out of the comparatively conservative course which Galloway has pursued in the Legislature. The constituents came out second best, for Galloway soon gave them to understand that he was not to be dictated to by them as to the line of conduct he was to be governed by, and that he would shoot the first one that attempted to molest him. A crowd, numbering some thirty or forty negroes, collected during the discussion, but dispersed without any overt action."

There will be a meeting of the Democrats and Conservatives of Alamance, at the Court House in Graham, on Saturday, the first of August, to ratify the New York National nominations, and to appoint delegates to the State Convention, to be held in this city, on the 13th prox.

A Seymour and Blair Club was organized in Salisbury, on Saturday night last. Able, stirring and patriotic speeches were made by Luke Blackmer, C. W. Keene and F. C. Shober, Esqs. A county mass meeting is to be held in Salisbury, on the 1st prox., to appoint delegates to the State Democratic Convention.

A STRAW.—We have the first "straw" of the Presidential campaign. This morning a man on a crowded Jersey City ferry boat endeavored to sell badges, neatly gotten up, of Grant and Colfax. He solicited each passenger individually, but in vain; and as he left the boat he grumbled out that the "crowd was a copperhead one, and that he hadn't made enough to pay his fare."—N. Y. Express, 13th.

The Radical journals boast that the entire British press favors the Grant ticket.—It is only a little while ago that these same Radical journals were howling that the British press "sided with the rebels." It does not occur to these papers that possibly the British press encourages rebellion and Radicalism because both tend to the disruption of the Union.

Why is the human eye like the "White House" at Washington? Because both open to Seymour.—Evening News.

Our Washington Correspondence.

WASHINGTON, D. C.,
July 20th, 1868.

EDITORS SENTINEL:—One of the grandest popular meetings it has ever been my fortune to witness, was held in this city, on Saturday night last, to ratify and endorse the platform and nominees of the National Democratic Convention.

Take it altogether, its numbers, its dignity and its enthusiasm, it was more than could have been expected, even in the National Metropolis, where the reckless Radical majority in Congress is first felt, and where, as one of the distinguished speakers very justly observed, their infamous acts are first tried, upon a people as powerless as those have been in the Southern States. Thousands upon thousands of citizens of every class, profession and occupation, joined heart and soul in this solemn condemnation of the Radical revolutionists, and made the air resound with their cannon, their music, and their cheers.

The truth is, everywhere, all over the North, and throughout the great West, the people are rising up in such numbers for Seymour and Blair, as to indicate a victory, next Fall, for the Democrats, as complete and crushing in its effect as was that in 1840 of Harrison over Van Buren. Our people, who suffer directly from both negro rule and Military despotism, would feel cheered and confident of early relief from the present degraded situation, if they could but witness the fervor and zeal with which the great body of the Northern people are entering the campaign, for (as Gen. Ewing said,) "Horatio Seymour, the Statesman of New York, and Gen. Frank Blair, the Hero and Statesman of Missouri."

There is no mincing of words with these Northern speakers. They declare openly, from the house-tops, that white men must and shall rule the United States, and preserve the Constitution, their only hope and salvation, as well as our own.

Senator Doolittle, Gen. Ewing, Hon. Mr. Trimble, of Kentucky, Judge Niblack, of Indiana, Hon. Mr. Cavanaugh, of Montana, Gen. C. W. Blair, of Kansas, Hon. Mr. Eldridge, and other speakers, all predicted a most signal victory for Seymour and Blair. Letters and dispatches were read from Mr. Pendleton, Gov. English, Mr. Parker and Mr. Hendricks, (who, but for illness, would have been one of the speakers,) and all recommended a hearty and cordial support of the ticket and predicted its certain triumph in November next.

Besides the speakers (already given) at the main stand, which was beautifully decorated, and erected in front of the City Hall, other speakers near by entertained those on the outskirts of the vast assemblage of persons. Among these were a number of German citizens, speaking in their own language to their countrymen, who exhibited the greatest interest and wildest enthusiasm in the Democratic cause. Grant cannot succeed, with the Irish and Germans against him, the white soldiers at least divided in their support of the two candidates, and the Union, Liberty, Constitution loving people all over the broad land, opposed to his election. No! no! Grant will be the worst beaten man that has entered the Presidential race in our day and generation. So say Doolittle, Ewing, English, Parker, Tilden, Trimble, and hundreds of other distinguished Northern men, who could, if necessary, be added to the list.

Victory is their watchword. Let us take it up and inscribe high upon our banners, everywhere, "Liberty and Union—now and forever, one and inseparable." Roll on the ball!

RATIFICATION MEETING IN CARTERET.

A large and enthusiastic meeting of the citizens of Beaufort and vicinity was held at the Court House, on the evening of the 18th., for the purpose of ratifying the nominations made by the National Democratic Convention.

The meeting was organized by appointing Dr. L. W. Martin, President, Dr. R. E. Walker, Vice-President, and Geo. W. Charlotte and Wm. J. Bushall, Secretaries.

Dr. Martin entertained the meeting at some length in support of the Platform and nominees of the party, after which, on motion of Dr. Walker, a Committee of five were appointed to draft resolutions for the action of the meeting.

The Committee consisted of Dr. R. E. Walker, Messrs. W. V. Geffroy and J. H. Davis, Sr., Capt. Rich'd Blount and Col. John M. Perry. After a short absence the Committee returned, and submitted the following report, which was unanimously adopted, amidst loud and prolonged cheers:

WHEREAS, The representatives of the Conservative sentiment of the country did, in Convention assembled in the City of New York on the 4th. day of July, nominate candidates for President and Vice President of the United States, and pledged them to the support of principles in harmony with the Constitution and acceptable to all patriotic people; therefore be it

Resolved, That the Platform of principles enunciated by the Convention command our hearty approbation, and that we will cling to them as the cardinal doctrines of our political faith, and as the true theory upon which this Government should be administered.

Resolved, That in Horatio Seymour, of New York, and Gen. Francis P. Blair, of Missouri, we recognize statesmen of great merit and enlarged patriotism, men ready to reform abuses, reduce the enormous expenditures of the government, and restore the Southern States to that equality in the Union they enjoyed before the late civil war.

Resolved, That heartily endorsing both candidates and platform, we pledge ourselves to work earnestly and zealously for the cause, believing that in so doing we but devote our efforts for the lasting good of our country and the honor and dignity of our race.

After the adoption of the resolutions the meeting was addressed by Col. J. M. Perry, James Ward, Esq., Capt. Richard Blount and Joel H. Davis, sr., Esq.

On motion of Mr. Jeffroy, the meeting unanimously resolved itself into a Seymour and Blair Club, when, on further motion, the President appointed a Committee on permanent organization, which reported as follows: For President, R. E. Walker; Vice Presidents, W. F. Piver and D. S. Sanders; Secretary, W. J. Bushall; Treasurer, Geo. W. Charlotte; Executive Committee, W. V. Geffroy, J. H. Davis, Sr., T. P. Whitney, John M. Perry and Thomas A. Robbins.

The report was adopted and the Club ordered to meet upon the call of the President.

On motion, it was ordered that reports of proceedings be furnished the Raleigh Sentinel and Newbern Journal of Commerce, with a request to publish.

On motion, the thanks of the meeting were tendered the President, Vice Presidents, and Secretaries; after which the meeting adjourned with three hearty cheers for Seymour and Blair.

GOOD MOTTO.—The colored Democrats of Columbia, S. C., had a grand parade and barbecue on the 7th. It was largely attended and the best feeling prevailed. Three whites and three colored spoke. One of the banners bore the inscription: "We trust the men of the South."

Our Afternoon Dispatches.

FROM WASHINGTON—CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, July 22, P. M.

The Southern members had a caucus, this morning, to consider the Virginia, Mississippi and Texas situation, and make arrangements for the campaign.

The House has passed the funding Bill, substantially as published on Monday last.

Appropriation bills, aggregating $292,000,000 are passed.

Gen F. P. Blair's letter of acceptance was published in this morning's Intelligencer.

FROM GEORGIA—DIFFICULTY BETWEEN A TAX RECEIVER AND A DEPUTY SHERIFF—NEGRO RIOT.

SAVANNAH, July 22, M.

A difficulty occurred, last night, in a drinking saloon, between William Robert Hopkins, a Tax Receiver, and Isaac Russel, Deputy Sheriff, resulting in the shooting of Hopkins, killing him instantly. Russel claims to have acted in self defence.

The affair caused great excitement among the negroes, who, at a signal of the drum, assembled, several hundred strong, armed with guns and clubs, and threatened to lynch Russel and demolish his house. On learning that Russel had been taken to jail, they proceeded to attack it, but were dispersed by the police.

The excitement is somewhat abated this morning. The prompt obedience to the signal shows fully that the negroes are fully organized in this city.

FROM ATLANTA—INAUGURATION OF "GOV." BULLOCK, &C.

ATLANTA July 22, M.

R. B. Bullock was inaugurated Governor at noon. His address is brief and laudatory of the Republican party, and condemnatory of the President's policy.

General Meade and Staff were present at the ceremony, which passed off quietly.

It is reported that the Military Commission for the trial of the Columbus prisoners will be dissolved, to-day, and the prisoners remanded to the civil authorities.

Our Midnight Dispatches.

CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, July 21, P. M.

HOUSE.—Kellogg, of Alabama, and Tift, of South Carolina, were seated.

Stevens made a personal explanation, denying the remarks attributed to him about paying bonds in gold, and denouncing papers attacking him as rebel, half-rebel and all in bondholders interest.

A bill extending the time for the completion of the Southern Pacific Railroad passed.

SENATE.—Robertson and Sawyer, Senators from South Carolina, were seated. Sawyer's seating excited a prolonged discussion.

The affidavits of C. C. Bowen and Thos. J. Mackey were read, declaring the belief that Sawyer was ineligible,—that he was a share holder in blockading, and a member of a military organization in Charleston in 1864.

Robertson, who had been previously seated, so he might speak and vote in Sawyer's case, heard none of these charges in the South Carolina Legislature, and he believed them unfounded and brought up by disappointed friends of Mackey.

The question of adjournment was resumed, when the arming of the Southern States Governments was again discussed. The bill will undoubtedly become a law before Congress adjourns.

Concurrent resolution to take a recess from Monday next to the third Monday in September passed.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, July 22, P. M.

The uncertainty about the tax bill creates much excitement. It seems probable that the President will veto it, on the ground of innovations on the appointing power.

The Senate will disagree to the House amendments to the funding bill.

At the meeting of the Southern members and "Union men" to-day, Whittemore, of South Carolina, was President, and H. T. Fisher, of Mississippi, Secretary.

Jno. C. Fremont introduced resolutions that, in view of the President's threatening attitude regarding reconstruction, Congress should remain in session until after the election. Congress should immediately give Virginia, Mississippi and Texas loyal State governments. Congress should pass a stringent law for the enforcement of the third section of the fourteenth amendment. The President should be impeached,—pledging themselves to resist recess, until his removal was accomplished.

The meeting adjourned until to-night.

FROM WILMINGTON.

WILMINGTON, July 22, P. M.

The new Sheriff has appointed two negroes and one white Deputies. A negro Deputy is to be Jailor.

Refreshing rains in this section in time to save most of the crops. Corn, in some localities, was hopelessly ruined before the rain fell.

Political excitement is high. It will probably surpass that of 1860, before the close of the campaign.

FROM ALABAMA—THE LEGISLATURE.

MONTGOMERY, July 22 P. M.

At 12, M. the Legislature met in Convention to elect a Senator for the term ending in 1871. Warner, of Ohio, received 43 votes; R. M. Reynolds, of Wisconsin, received 28; Jno. L. Pennington, of Alabama, received 21; A. C. Felder, of Alabama, 9; and Gen. D. E. Coon, late of Iowa, 1. They are all Radicals. No election.

Pennington, (alias "Cuba,") is the choice of the moderates.

MARKETS.

NEW YORK, July 22, P. M.

Cotton opened quiet, and closed heavy and lower. Sales of 800 bales at 31@31½.
Turpentine 43½@44.
Rosin 2,90@7.
Gold 1,43½.

WILMINGTON, July 22, P. M.

THE NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION:

THE PLATFORM.

"The Democratic party, in national convention assembled, reposing its trust in the intelligence, patriotism, and discriminating justice of the people, standing upon the Constitution as the foundation and limitation of the powers of the Government, and the guaranty of the liberties of the citizen, and recognizing the questions of slavery and secession as having been settled, for all time to come, by the war or the voluntary action of the Southern States in constitutional conventions assembled, and never to be renewed or re-agitated, do, with the return of peace, demand:

First.—Immediate restoration of all the States to their rights in the Union, under the Constitution, and of civil government to the American people.

Second.—Amnesty for all past political offences, and the regulation of the elective franchise in the States by their citizens.

Third.—Payment of the public debt of the United States as rapidly as practicable; all moneys drawn from the people by taxation, except so much as is requisite for the necessities of the Government, economically administered, being honestly applied to such payment, and where the obligations of the Government do not expressly state upon their face, or the law under which they were issued does not provide that they shall be paid in coin, they ought, in right and in justice, to be paid in the lawful money of the United States.

Fourth.—Equal taxation of every species of property according to its real value, including Government bonds and other public securities.

Fifth.—One currency for the Government and the people, the laborer and the officeholder, the pensioner and the soldier, the producer and the bondholder.

Sixth.—Economy in the administration of the Government; the reduction of the standing army and navy; the abolition of the Freedmen's Bureau (great cheering) and all political instrumentalities designed to secure negro supremacy; simplification of the system and discontinuance of inquisitorial modes of assessing and collecting internal revenue, so that the burden of taxation may be equalized and lessened, the action of the Government and the currency made good; the repeal of all enactments for enrolling the State militia into national forces in time of peace; and a tariff for revenue upon foreign imports, and such equal taxation under the internal revenue laws as will afford incidental protection to domestic manufactures, and as will, without impairing the revenue, impose the least burden upon and best promote and encourage the great industrial interests of the country.

Seventh.—Reform of abuses in the Administration, the expulsion of corrupt men from office, the abrogation of useless offices, the restoration of rightful authority to and the independence of the executive and judicial departments of the Government, the subordination of the military to the civil power, to the end that the usurpations of Congress and the despotism of the sword may cease.

Eighth.—Equal rights and protection for naturalized and native born citizens at home and abroad; the assertion of American nationality which shall command the respect of foreign Powers, and furnish an example and encouragement to people struggling for national integrity, constitutional liberty, and individual rights; and the maintenance of the rights of naturalized citizens against the absolute doctrine of immutable allegiance and the claims of foreign Powers to punish them for alleged crime committed beyond their jurisdiction.

In demanding these measures and reforms we arraign the Radical party for its disregard of right, and the unparalleled oppression and tyranny which have marked its career. After the most solemn and unanimous pledge at both Houses of Congress to prosecute the war exclusively for the maintenance of the Government and the preservation of the Union under the Constitution, it has repeatedly violated that most sacred pledge, under which alone was rallied that noble volunteer army which carried our flag to victory.

Instead of restoring the Union, it has, so far as is in its power, dissolved it, and subjected ten States, in time of profound peace, to military despotism and negro supremacy.

It has established there the right of trial by jury; it has abolished the habeas corpus, that most sacred writ of liberty; it has overthrown the freedom of speech and the press; it has substituted arbitrary seizures and arrests, and military trials and secret star chamber inquisitions for the constitutional tribunals; it has disregarded in time of peace the right of the people to be free from searches and seizures; it has entered the post and telegraph offices, and even the private rooms of individuals, and seized their private papers and letters without any specific charge or notice of affidavit, as required by the organic law; it has converted the American capitol into a bastile; it has established a system of spies and official espionage to which no constitutional monarchy of Europe would dare to resort; it has abolished the right of appeal on important constitutional questions to the supreme judicial tribunal, and threatens to curtail or destroy its original jurisdiction, which is irrevocably vested by the Constitution, while the learned Chief Justice has been subjected to the most atrocious calumnies merely because he would not prostitute his high office to the support of the false and partisan charges preferred against the President. its corruption and extravagance have exceeded anything known in history, and by its frauds and monopolies it has nearly doubled the burden of the debt created by the war. It has stripped the President of his constitutional power of appointment even of his own Cabinet. Under its repeated assaults the pillars of the Government are rocking on their base, and should it succeed in November next, and inaugurate its President, we will meet, as a subjugated and conquered people, amid the ruins of liberty and the scattered fragments of the Constitution; and we do declare and resolve that ever since the people of the United States threw off all subjection to the British Crown, the privilege and trust of suffrage have belonged to the several States, and have been granted, regulated, and controlled exclusively by the political power of each State respectively, and, that any attempt by Congress, on any pretext whatever, to deprive any State of this right, or to interfere with its exercise, is a flagrant usurpation of power which can find no warrant in the Constitution; and it sanctioned by the people will subvert our form of government, and can only end in a single centralized and consolidated Government, in which the separate existence of the States will be entirely absorbed, and an unqualified despotism established in place of a federal union of co-equal States; and that we regard the reconstruction acts (so called) of Congress as usurpations, and unconstitutional, revolutionary, subversi; that our soldiers and sailors, who carried the flag of our country to victory against the most gallant and determined foe, must ever be gratefully remembered; and all the guarantees given in their favor must be faithfully carried into execution.

That the public lands should be distributed as widely as possible among the people, and should be disposed of either under the pre emption or homestead laws, and sold in reasonable quantities, and to none but actual occupants, at the minimum price established by the Government. When grants of the public lands may be allowed necessary for the encouragement of important public improvements, the proceeds of the sale of such lands, and not the lands themselves, should be so applied.

That the President of the United States, Andrew Johnson, (applause,) in exercising the power of his high office in resisting the aggressions of Congress upon the constitutional rights of the States and the people, is entitled to the gratitude of the whole American people, and in behalf of the Democratic party we tender him our thanks for his patriotic efforts in that regard."

A NEW ARRANGEMENT

FOR THE

SENTINEL.

Published in the City of Raleigh, N. C.,

Daily, Semi Weekly and Weekly.

William E. Pell, } Editors.
Sexton Gales, }

In view of the scarcity of money, and the severity of the times, the PROPRIETOR of the SENTINEL has determined to reduce the terms of the paper, to commence after the 31st DECEMBER, next, and to make such improvements in its general character as will commend it to the patronage of an enlightened public.

In POLITICS it will be thoroughly Conservative, advocating, at all times:

A strict observance of the Constitution of the United States, and the harmonious Union of equal States;

Obedience to law and the enforcement of order;

The supremacy of the civil over the military, in time of peace;

The equality of the three co-ordinate branches of the government;

The sovereignty of the States over their own internal affairs, in strict conformity to the Constitution;

The maintenance of freedom and justice to all, without distinction of color, but the supremacy of the white race as the governing element;

Opposition to Radicalism in all its phases.

As a NEWS journal, it shall be equal to any.

The principal markets will be regularly published.

Its LITERARY character shall be maintained and improved, by contributions from our best writers.

Finally, the SENTINEL will seek to be the special promoter of the educational, moral and economical interests of the people of North Carolina.

☞ We ask every Conservative in the State to become our Agent to extend the circulation of the SENTINEL. The events of 1868 will be exciting and important. The WEEKLY SENTINEL should be in the hands of the great body of the people—The terms are now so low that every one will be able to pay for it.

GENERAL REMARKS.

Revenue stamps may be used indiscriminately upon any of the matters or things enumerated in Schedule B., except proprietary and playing card stamps, for which a special use has been provided.

Postage stamps cannot be used in payment of the duty chargeable on instruments.

It is the duty of the maker of an instrument to affix and cancel the stamp thereon. If he neglects to do so, the party for whom it is made, may stamp it before it is used; and, if used after the 30th of July, 1864, and used without a stamp, it cannot afterwards be effectually stamped. Any failure upon the part of the maker of an instrument, to appropriately stamp it, renders him liable to a penalty of two hundred dollars.

Suits are commenced in many States by other process than writ, viz: summons, warrants, publications, &c., in which case these, as the original process, severally require stamps.

Writs of scire facias are subject to stamp duty as original process.

The jurat of an affidavit, taken before a Justice of the Peace, Notary Public, or other officer duly authorized to take affidavits, is held to be a certificate, and is subject to a stamp duty of five cents, except when taken in suits of legal proceedings.

Certificates of loan in which there shall appear any printed or written evidence of an amount of money to be paid on demand or at any time designated, are subject to stamp duty as Promissory Notes.

The assignment of a mortgage is subject to the same duty as that imposed upon the original instrument; that is to say, for every sum of five hundred dollars, or any fractional part thereof, of the amount secured by the mortgage, at time of its assignment, there must be affixed a stamper stamps, denoting a duty of five cents.

When two or more persons join in the execution of an instrument, the stamps by which the instrument is liable, under the law, may be affixed and cancelled by one of the parties.
